PERSECUTED CHURCH

Pray for Iranian prisoner Ebrahim Firouzi. Ebrahim was charged and convicted for propaganda against the Islamic Republic, "launching and directing evangelism" and "running a Christian website."

After six years, Ebrahim has been released from prison in Karaj last week. Like many political prisoners in Iran, Ebrahim was also sentenced to two years of internal exile. So while he is out of one prison, he'll soon begin serving another two years in Iran's far southeastern region in a remote village near the Pakistan border. The additional sentence aims to punish not only the prisoner but also their families by forcing them to travel long distances for their weekly visits with their exiled relatives. also requests prayer for himself, especially for patience when he begins to feel upset and angry.

Pray that Ebrahim will be able to obtain his documents and other items confiscated by Iranian Intelligence during his arrest.

Pray that Ebrahim will enjoy the opportunity to meet with family and friends before leaving for exile in Sarbaz.

Pray that Ebrahim will be able to find a place to rent and work in Sarbaz and that God will make it a place of blessing. e
